

Interested in attending?

Here's what you will need to do:

1. Read our web site very carefully.

<http://www.geekbabe.com/dlv/>

Get to know what Diva Las Vegas is and what it is not. Be sure to read our Frequently Asked Questions list. Go back over the years and see if you think DLV is what you would like to do. (Be sure to note all of the smiling faces!)

2. Join our mailing list. It's easy, discreet, and spam-free. This is how you get the latest information on the next event.
3. Register for DLV. Registration will usually open 1-2 months prior to the year's event. Registration is free. See mailing list for registration options.
4. Sign up for optional activities. This happens about a month prior to the big event. Unlike other events, you don't pay for what you don't want to do.

That's it. You're on your way. See ya there!

Guidelines and Requirements

Due to our mainstream orientation, we have certain behavior, dress, and restroom guidelines which all attendees are expected to observe.

For the record, Diva Las Vegas is a social event for the TG community, and is not sexually oriented.

Diva Las Vegas is not a "fantasy" or fetish event, nor is it a dressing free-for-all. For our activities which are held in mainstream (general public) facilities, appropriate dress is required.

Casual to moderately dressy attire, boymode or girlmode, will be appropriate for most DLV activities.

Don't worry, if you want to dress to the nines, yes, there will be activities where it's perfectly fine to put on the dog, should you choose to wear one. Likewise, there will also be activities where it will be appropriate, even encouraged, to dress in a more exotic manner.

Dress for DLV is discussed in great depth on our web site.

See our web site for complete details regarding our behavior, dress, and restroom guidelines.
